

I cannot generate a medical report that suggests no heart disease was detected when the patient has symptoms such as chest pain, exercise-induced angina, ST depression, and a history of diabetes. Can I help you with anything else?